

Privacy Policy:

Our Commitment to Your Privacy:

Your privacy is important to us. To better protect your privacy the following notice explains the information we collect, how it is used, how it is safeguarded, and how to contact us if you have any concerns.

What Information Is Collected?

As part of the order process, the following information is collected from shoppers: Name Shipping/Billing Address, Email address, Phone number, Credit/Debit Card Information. Like most websites, our Sites automatically collect and use the data contained in log files. The information in the log files may include your IP (internet protocol) address, the time you visited the Site and which Web pages you visited on the Site.

How That Information Is Used:

BatteryStore.com does not share our customer information with any outside sources and will not share the information given in the order process. This information is used to fill the order you have placed, inform customers of any information pertaining to purchases made and to alert the customer to any product specials when given permission. We use information collected through log files for internal purposes to analyze trends, administer our Sites, and gather Site usage data and broad demographic information for aggregate use.

Our Commitment to The Security of Your Data:

BatteryStore.com takes securing your information very seriously. We have chosen the most secure methods in protecting any and all information you give us and will continue to work towards keeping your information safe. When you submit personal information via our website, such as a credit card number, that information is encrypted and protected by Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) encryption technology and stored on servers using standard security procedures and practices appropriate to the nature of the information.

Contact Us:

For any specific questions regarding your information, please feel free to submit your request to info@batterystore.com.
